ESCHA founds subsidiary in the USA

ESCHA Inc. will start to produce in Minneapolis in January 2008

Halver, 12.10.2007

For further support in business for the company TURCK, ESCHA Bauelemente GmbH founds a subsidiary in the USA, in the federal state Minnesota. The company operates under the name ESCHA Inc. and has planned to start the production in January 2008. The business of ESCHA Inc. is to build tools and to produce single plastic components. With this business the capacity will be expanded and the main current factors of success as rapidness and flexibility will further be intensified. ESCHA Inc. will not provide finished goods to customers, but will support existing and potential major customers in their business.

The single owner of the USA subsidiary is ESCHA Bauelemente GmbH in Germany. Due to the increasing international orientation of the company the corporate symbol has been modified in order to establish it in every country.
